

I strongly oppose the attempts by the CBA to weaken our Indiana state no-call legislation. Just because a person may have done business at some point with a company DOES NOT mean s/he wants to receive soliciting phone calls at any time.